One teacher I remember, and why.	Prof Charlie Kriebel, for his approach to Ph.D advising.	My grandfather, whatever he had emphasised is happening now.	My dad. He taught me that money is a good servant but a bad master.	Mr Santhanam, my Chemistry Prof. He developed a passion in me.	Prof Narasimhan who made me fall in love with chemistry.
One most valuable work lesson, thus far.	Belief that you are not entitled to results always.	Reports are most important in any business.	Always think what is possible, not what is not.	Do your home work thoroughly.	Speed is the name of the game.
One thing I look for the most in a new recruit.	Motivation.	Attitude.	A smile.	Attitude.	Attitude.
One thought from a book that I am currently reading.	Power of crowd.	Look for opportunity, no guarantees/assurance.	Ethically run companies do not come in last.	Purpose in life gives you a compelling reason and a profound meaning to all you do.	Allow one child to cry.
One tip for time management.	Focus on now.	Planning the day right at the start.	Do the important things first.	Don't be entangled in trivia.	Plan your work, work your plan.
One key thing in my fitness routine.	Being regular.	Walking.	Enjoy your fitness workout.	Walk before you talk.	Sleep.
One signal that tells me there is a problem.	No communication.	No compliants, no sans.	When the best employee feels too stretched, the system needs a relook.	Facial expression of the other person.	Unusual silence.
One technique for handling anger.	Think life is only for a few years.	Break for five minutes.	Write an e-mail to yourself expressing your anger.	Realease it.	Smile.
One essential ingredient in my investment portfolio.	Technology.	Looking ahead.	Replace greed with prudence.	Pooja.	Real-estate.
One good thing about the new generation.	Optimism and energy.	Knowledge in everything.	Willingness to take risks.	Happier than the one I belong to.	Willingness to learn.
One worrying thing about the young.	Values.	Attitude, no long-term plan.	Less concern for the environment.	Influence of the crowd.	Too demonstrative and self-centered.
One thing that clinches a deal.	Win, win.	Personalised approach in anything we do.	The sincerity of the parties involved.	Authenticity.	Transparency.
One definition of values.	Integrity.	Result.	Doing the right thing even if it is not convenient or comfortable.	What you are proud to share before your elders and your children.	Something that doesn't hurt anybody including oneself.
One way that I use for resolving conflicts.	Give some time.	Take time to understand and analyse 100%.	Talk, and listen, if possible together.	Ahimsa.	Say "sorry".
One favourite activity when travelling.	Reading and sleep.	Reading books.	Photography.	Reading.	Reading.
One indicator of performance.	Positive energy.	Effort one makes.	Customer feedback.	People around you are happier.	Happy customers.
One macroeconomic variable I keenly watch.	GDP.	Oil price.	GDP growth.	Inflaion rate.	Gold price.
One dream I'd like to chase, later in life.	Mathematics.	Train more people to grow with positive attitude.	Make a documentary movie.	Painting on canvas.	Set up kennels.
One good way to foster innovation.	Passion and don't stop to imagine.	Think differently, and not in the usual mode.	Allow people to make mistakes.	Cerebral free-wheeling.	Create a mind lab -- a corner for registering just about any thought.
One clue that tells me I'm the leader.	People agree and are comfortable.	People management.	When people look to me for breakthrough thoughts.	People look up to me for help.	Can demonstrate success.
