One teacher I remember, and why.	My father, who also taught me in class four.	Prof. C. Jaganathchariar, proficient in almost all subjects.	T. R. Ramakrishnan, who taught me maths.	James Devadoss for his dedication to teaching.	Subhash Palekar, for introducing me to 'O' budget farming.
One most valuable work lesson, thus far.	There is always a solution.	Keep updated.	Duty is deity.	Hard work succeeds.	See happiness in success of agriculturists.
One thing I look for the most in a new recruit.	Passion.	General knowledge.	Attitude.	Willingness to learn and experiment.	Sincerity with compassion.
One thought from a book that I am currently reading.	World goes through two or three fundamental changes every century.	Lessons from ancient civilisation (Eric von Daniken).	Knowledge is not what you possess. It is what others think you possess.	We make our own constraints and control our destiny.	Hope with determination to succeed in life.
One tip for time management.	Just don't be conscious about it.	Keep to time.	Do it today because you are not sure to wake up tomorrow.	Listen to your mind clock, don't see your watch.	Do things immediately without postponing.
One key thing in my fitness routine.	I am really not into keeping fit.	Exercise.	Ladder for posture correction.	Eat what you want, don't over-eat.	Yoga and pranayama.
One signal that tells me there is a problem.	Watch faces around you.	When people don't speak the truth.	Butterflies in the stomach.	Faces and talk.	Intuition.
One technique for handling anger.	Rave, shout and then cool down.	Silence.	Think of your child's face.	Smile.	Smile, be calm.
One essential ingredient in my investment portfolio.	My company.	Insurance.	Instinct.	Insurance.	Land and deposits.
One good thing about the new generation.	Adaptability.	More active than the old.	Child is always the father of man.	No inhibitions.	Fast in understanding new things.
One worrying thing about the young.	Adaptability - not curious enough.	Indiscipline.	Value depreciation.	Shortcuts to success.	Greed and fear.
One thing that clinches a deal.	Fairness.	Negotiation with cool and calm mind.	First five minutes.	Patience and smile.	Be firm but soft.
One definition of values.	Something that has to be constantly updated.	Stick to truth and honesty.	Love across generations.	Listen to your conscience.	Help others.
One way that I use for resolving conflicts.	Listen.	Resolve to the mutual satisfaction.	Try to be judicious as much as you can.	Bring the parties to the table.	Maintain peace and this has effect on the situation.
One favourite activity when travelling.	Read.	Reading.	Playing cards, listening to music.	Reading.	Reading magazines.
One indicator of performance.	Smiles all around.	Satisfaction after performance.	Bank balance.	Numbers and your walk.	Results.
One macroeconomic variable I keenly watch.	Can't say I do.	Share quotations.	Tax collection.	Price of children's toys.	Economic prosperity of villagers.
One dream I'd like to chase, later in life.	I am chasing all my dreams simultaneously.	Wish for a better life.	Instant and peaceful death.	Have books all around me.	Home for aged destitutes.
One good way to foster innovation.	Be dissatisfied.	Read and learn.	Discuss before deciding.	Don't impose your ideas.	Go deep into specific topic of interest and of value to others.
One clue that tells me I'm the leader.	The load on the shoulders.	Perseverance.	Command love and respect from the team.	When I don't talk but am understood.	Being steady (not oscillating) in principles.
